

ERASMUS COURSES

Institute of Sociology

2014/2015. Autumn

1. INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION

Neptun code: BTÉRT27; BTSBN020K19

Name of course: Intercultural Communication

Name of teacher: Dr Anna Urbán

Which semester: Autumn, (Wed: 14-16)

Room: B/2 217

Contact hours/week: 2

Credits: 3

Assessment of studies: Presentation. Fieldwork

Course content

2. THE SOCIAL HISTORY OF BRITAIN

Neptun Code:

Teacher: Dr Colin Swatridge

Semester: Autumn Semester 2014 (5 Weeks)

Contact Hours/week: 4 Hours (Thur 10-14)

Room: B/2 114

Credits: 3

Assessment of Studies: A Seminar Paper sent as an e-mail attachment at the end of the course, written to specified guidelines.

Course Content: Serfdom; the Black Death; town, country, and religion in Shakespeare's England; Civil War; upstairs-downstairs in Georgian England; the beginnings of organized education; the Industrial Revolution; Luddites and gamekeepers; an emerging middle class; trade unions; the effects of two world wars; the welfare state; contemporary social issues.

3. THE ART OF ARGUMENT

Neptun Code: BTÉRT12

Teacher: Dr Colin Swatridge

Semester: Autumn Semester 2014 (5 weeks)

Contact Hours/week: 4 Hours (Wed 10-14)

Room: B/2 114

Credits: 3

Assessment of Studies: A structured argument on a topic chosen from 5 alternatives, written according to a given schema, sent as an e-mail attachment at the end of the course.

Course Content: The nature of argument (in essay- and dissertation-writing); claims and counter-claims; the weaknesses in argument; rhetorical appeals to authority, emotion, and tradition; what counts as evidence – examples, facts, anecdote; what we know, and what we believe; alternative conclusions; quotation and acknowledgement.